

POCKET SNIPER, Claims Victim No. 10, Derdan's Strikers, Scores 8-3, and Wins TOW on the 12th Round of the 2nd Conference, DFBC 53rd All Filipino Bowling League Supported by BeFit-AKI Fitness!!!

Finally, a fitting reward, for the team who owns the longest winning streak of the conference at 10 wins, snatching the lead and winning the Team of the Week award at the same time. A healthy but deadly combination and effective use of handicaps, added with much improved bowling skills, the Snipers are enjoying their most successful conference since they joined the league 3 years ago. Barely escaping with a win in game 1 by just a mark, the Snipers made sure that it won't be the case in game 2, winning it by a 16-mark margin and taking 2 points bonus with it and probably the game series too; however, to Derdan's credit, they finally decided to wake up from their slumber to play competitive bowling and take game 3 for themselves and a bonus point as well. It should serve as a good reminder for the Snipers that getting there is just half of the job, maintaining and defending it against all comers is the real challenge. Newly designated Team Captain Leo Lerma flexed his muscles to lead his team, scoring a series of 645 with games of 229/240 & 176. He was throwing strikes all over the lane in the eventful game 2 where they took 2 points bonus plus of course, the win. Aiza Garcia back from a 1 week rest, was the next leading scorer with a 627 series from games of 191/232 & 204. The revelation of the game is the much improved games of Lucy Ingente who is instrumental and partly the reason for the successful win streak of the Snipers. She is consistently beating her average and at times scores 2 or 3 marks above her average. This was owing to her much, much improved sparing. She scored a series of 625 from games of 235/212 & 178. Dennis Gonzaga is also getting his fair share of sparing and contributed with a series of 587. Billy Hernandez, on and off scoring, brought the rear with 573 series. Derdan's Striker's have Malou Fideles leading them with a very high 671 series, followed by Ariel Serrano's 605, then Joel Umalsa's 599. Arnel "Baby" Bermas, also did his share in scoring a 596 series but Team Captain Danny Aquino, struggled with just 541 series to show up. This coming Friday, the Snipers will be tested. Will they pass with flying colors? Or will they choke? All shall be revealed in due time. Abangan ang susunod na kabanata!

The Tweener's toyed with the "now you see me, now you don't" V for Victory quintet, scoring 8 versus nil. Winning back to back rounds seemed like a long time ago, just like winning back to back championships seemed like years ago, when in fact it was only last conference when they were at the top of the world. Peaking early from the gates, and losing their most valuable weapon in the process: their precious handicaps coupled with the surgery of Tess Victoria, made winning a struggle, and so they unravel and have gone into a horrible slump, losing heavily from rounds 3 to 10. Handicaps, Tess Victoria, blind players, but most importantly with their confidence gone, they were easy pickings for other teams. All is not lost however, if these wins, are to be a gauge, they can still catch up, mathematically speaking, and land a decent finish. 3 Tweeners scored 600 plus series, led by Scary Spice Jaezen Plata with a 639 series. Doc Ronnie Fabian, who has been struggling lately, supported the team's cause by producing a series of 612. Doc Xanthie Fronda, also submitted a hard earned 603 series. Tess Victoria contributed 581 series and Kapitana Kathleen Raymundo shelled out 543 series. From the losing side Mimi Malik, missing several weeks of bowling, top scored for her team with a series of 628 but that's about it for the whole team since the other 4 players just averaged a series of 522 and never offered much resistance.

Team Covenant is in a 5-round winning roll, this time dispatching erstwhile league leader and mighty Ball-istics 8-0, strengthening their bid and securing their grip in the 8th position, but more importantly gaining much needed confidence boost to face upcoming rivals in the next rounds. Taking game 1 by 4 pinfalls, they made sure that game 2 would not be the same cliffhanger and easily won it by 10 marks edge. It was more of the same in game 3 and the resulting wipe-out was more than they were expecting. It was a 3 man show as the 3 key players of Team Captain Maria Gil scored 600 plus series. Marlon Martinez started slowly but when he did, he made sure it counted most, and finished the game with a team high series of 667. Danton Abejero, who is now a Class B, is starting to make his presence felt. He forged a 645 series. GCC bound and anchor man, Jojo Acebron, was all focused and finished the entire 3 games this time, scoring 617 series, while Maureen Dujali (537) and Jun Baloloy (505) were happy with their handicap maintaining scores. The small but terrible Vhien Datinguino, fought up a really good fight, scoring a series of 647 but none of his team mates came nowhere near his score. The other 4 players, handicaps included just averaged a measly 542 series per player. If they can keep up with this win streak, who knows? A championship trophy is not far-fetched, in the meantime, expect them to slowly improve on their standings.

Wild Card, on its 8th game winning streak, stamped their class anew and finished off the feisty Ex-Bowlers with a 9-1 score, but not after several scary moments that their stubborn opponents put them through. It was definitely no smooth sailing at all, but their hearts and will to win carried them through. They have to go through the proverbial eye of the needle to win games 1 & 3, both winning it by a mere 2 marks on the last frames. It was the un-assuming Jomar Naguit and Salve Tesio, who took over the scoring leadership this time for the Wild Bunch. Jomar scored a whooping 657 series, scoring a highlight game of 262 in the 2nd game to win the WTA. He struggled a little bit in game 1 but when he found his range, nothing could stop him. Salve Tesio decided to show off and she did, scoring a valuable series of 627 from consistent games of 213/211 and 203. Muscle man and team anchor Kelly Odiong was just a points off from scoring 600 series, with his 597 but more importantly as the anchor, he came through with the all-important sparing and striking in the crucial 9th and last frames. Next in the scoring is the gunner Larry Dolor who started slow in game 1 but found his bearings in the succeeding games to score a series of 592. Wingman and new baby boy Daddy (CONGRATULATIONS!), Chris Calgao, with his late nights with the baby, understandably scored the team low, but just as important 571 series. Albert Soriano (628) and Renato Lubao (592) led their teams, but the supporting casts of Alma Leal (578), Ron Dionisio (556) and Joel Pangan (536), did not step up the plate. With this win, Wild Card took the 2nd position and will be really tested in the next round by previous no. 1 Ball-istics.

Mighty Ballantine’s demolished Xclusive 9-0 and is now firmly entrenched at no. 3. The wrecking crews of Team Captain Mario Magdaluyo showed to all and sundry that they are ready and primed to challenge for the championship trophy for this conference. It has been more than 2 years already since their last, and their hunger for the next one poses a threat to others who have similar intent. All 5 players fielded by Captain Mario produced more than 600 series. Top-scoring for them is veteran Jun Morales who, despite being several years removed from his prime, but when his juices are flowing, can still burn the lanes in scoring. He produced 662 series with a highlight game of 251 in the first game. Next up is the Silent Operator Ricky Reyes, who has recovered from his mini slump last conference and is now shooting/scoring the daylights out of DIBC. He was good for 624 series this time. The Captain, Mario Magdaluyo, on a gyrating and jumping hyper-mode, scored 614 series, a score which we haven’t seen from him in a long time. Singer and entertainer Jay-R Yjares when not doing that, cranked his way to a 607 series and the reliable Marivic Alfaro, as always, was dependable with her 605 series. There was no way for the Xclusive quintet to stop the Balantine’s wrecking crew, with only Boni Manalang who came to play with a magnificent series of 698 (winning for him the High Series of the Week), while the rest were a combined average series of 570 series versus the combined series average of 622 of the Whiskey drinkers. Pretenders and dreamers, here comes the BALLANTINES!

Elsewhere:

Surging AnT Stürmer picked-up its 7th consecutive win in as many games, scoring 8-0 against an undermanned Team Pilipinas quintet. They climbed up to the 5th position and if the leaders so much as blink their eyes, they will be in for a surprise. Ronald Valdez was the leading scorer of his team who did not break a sweat in winning all 3 games.

Harimanok Farms gave up 2 points and won 6 points for themselves against newcomers Unity Bowlers. What was surprising was that nobody from the Farmers scored 600 plus and Lita Ortiz (643 series) and Ohnie Rosero (604 series) did for the Unity. Well, looking deeper, the average series per player for the Farmers is 573 versus 564 average series per player of the newcomer Unity Bowlers. Harimanok goes up to no. 6 from no. 7.

DCC Cargo & IIEE played friendly games of 5 and 4 respectively. The team of electrical engineers, winning the first 2 games were threatening to take it all when the Balikbayan Cargo shippers suddenly erupted for a series of 1232 in the 3rd game to take the game, the series and a bonus point. Mario Rivera was the hero of the shippers in that momentous game 3.

On lanes 3 & 4 Sherlock and Bowl-tech, split the points evenly at 4 points each. Filo Escabel lead his team with a 608 series in a highlight game of 271 series to win for him the Bowler of the week award. Pretty Rica Asuncion top-billed for her team with a series of 609 followed by Rodel Billones with 608.

B&G played a legal line-up of 3 players to beat their averages and scored 9 points. Babes Lopez scored a monstrous 276 (Bowler of the Week) on the first game en-route to a series of 700. They improve to no. 12.
