

Team Pilipinas Obliterates RAK Pocket Sniper 10-0 in Winning DCC Cargo Team of the Week, On the Penultimate Round 16, 1st Conference of DFBC 53rd All Filipino Bowling League Supported by BeFit-AKI Fitness!!!

Nothing could have gone wrong for Team Pilipinas and everything went south for the RAK Pocket Snipers as the former made a mockery of the defenses thrown by the latter. Raining strikes after strikes and spares after spares, Team Pilipinas, en route to winning their 2nd Team of the Week award, but who has made a habit of playing like a roller coaster every week, was unstoppable as the Ras Al Khaima based keglers became the recipient of an ugly beating instigated by the patriots when it is their "schedule" to win. There was no way RAK Snipers could win or steal a point for that matter. Four players fielded by Dennis "John Lloyd" Araza all scored more than 600. We welcome back previous conference MVP Mark Bumagat in leading his team in scoring with a series of 654 on games of 229/227 & 198. Rey Castillo is another thorn on the part of the opposition as he likewise burned the lanes with a 653 on games of 210/221 & 222. The amiable Dennis "JL" Araza is not to be outdone with his own 608, Sheila Estabaya provided additional lady firepower with a 600 and only the cowboy/preacher Caloy Serrano was in a sort of "off form" performance with just 560. For the RAK Snipers' Billy Hernandez best simply was not good enough. He puts-up a decent 582 but it was all there is to it as the rest of the gangs were simply caught napping and unprepared. With this win, Team Pilipinas is now threatening to barge inside the Magic 10 and crushed the Snipers' whatever chances they have to land a podium finish.

DBC's Pride wiped out whatever slim chances Xclusive had, in pulling the rugs from under the leaders when they gifted them a big fat egg and themselves scored a huge 9 points getting them in a very good position to force entry into the Magic 10. They are now tied with Sherlock with identical 75 points and the only thing holding them back is their inferior tie break which is their total pinfalls. Xclusive meanwhile slid down to no. 5 position and is currently in a triple tie with V for Victory and B & G at 80 points each. DBC's Pride, a new team, hungry for recognition and respect is starting to peak but unfortunately runs out of rounds with just one last round remaining. Major league (DFBC) new comer Jo Nava who is starting to make a name for herself took a sort of grand slam of individual awards when she won both the Bowler of the Week and High Series of the Week awards with her 651 series and highlight game of 230 in the first game. Noel Bejar, their leader, won his 2nd Edgar Vale Bowler of the Week award when he scored a huge 252 in the 2nd game and contributed a series of 655. Joseph Quintillan shares a series of 602 and Yow Rivera soft rolls a 576. Only Joel Comendador was not in his elements with his mere 492 but it was all they needed as the opposition can not get their rhythm going.

Team OPTIO bounces back from a sorry loss in round 15 when they vented their ire on the hapless Team Covenant of Maria Gil, scoring 9 to nil. They improved their position to 4th but is a full 17 points behind Tweeners that puts the Championship mathematically out of their reach. Maximum position they can land is the 2nd position, assuming they score at least 12 points in the next round and Harimanok lose badly, in the next. Three players scored above 600 series in the win, led by newcomer Marvin Rebusada with 657 and with a highlight game of 238 in game 3. Next off is veteran Mommy Elsie Marcial who has a knack for delivering quality performances when needed. She rolls a 618 and showed a lot of poise by improving her score every game. Ryan Layoso, who is a very dependable player contributes a 606, and seldom used Olan Baldivino cranks a decent 566 and the combined scores of Atty. JoeRod and Abby Rabago, (549) complete the scores. Danton Abejero fought tooth and nail, scoring a scary 666 series and Jojo Acebron shares a 571 but that is all there is to it as the rest of the gang was a paltry 537 average each.

Harimanok Farms took advantage of a depleted Derdan's Strikers scoring 8-0 vs the 4 man team of Derdan's. Going into the final round this coming Friday, they are the only team with the closest chance to overtake the leading Tweeners but it will depend on two things. One, is through sheer will and determination to win. They should beat Team Optio (TBS) by scoring at least 7 points or more. A tall task by itself considering the latter is quite as determined to take maximum points. Two, is when the stars will align for them and hope that Tweeners will lose to B&G. Tweeners lead Harimanok by 6 points and overcoming it with just a single round remaining is like crossing the sand dunes of the Sahara Desert. Good news is that, like this writer always say, hope springs eternal and if it still mathematically possible, then by all means it is not impossible. Rex Galang top-billed for the chicken farmers with an emphatic 625. Andy Erena who has been off-form lately gets to redeem himself with a 611. Daddy Alvin Alfaro shares a one pin short of 600 score. Hilda Pilipina, powers her way with a 585 and Liza Castro was "singing in the rain" with a 498. Team Manager Danny Aquino leads his team with a 580, followed by Joel Umalsa with a 569 and muscle man Kelly Odiong with 560 but newcomer Diane Quiambao was groping for form with a measly 511.

Another team who benefitted from an opponent with a decimated line-up is IIEE who now stands at no. 8 and may even go as high as 5th, if things turn out as they hope. They scored 8-0 versus Wild Wild X, who was one player short to complete a 5 man line-up. Naturally it was a walk in the park for the Electrical Engineers and it just gave them a better chance to improve on their standings to the detriment of the other previously higher ranked teams. Despite the advantage, Gani "Ganpors" Porcina was all business by leading the team scoring with 613. Joven Hinampas (nang mahina lang) is right behind with 610.

Liza Lugtu is just right there with a 576, almost the same score tallied by Capt Bernard Solomon, who is back from nowhere to contribute 574 but Arnel Arias knows that all work and no play makes you lose handicaps and so he decided to earn some. Obet Lucero (589), Rodel Calderon (582), Gary Faustino (573), Sonny Cosio (546) and Blind?? (390) all did their best to no avail.

V for Victory up-ended Ballantine's 6-2. V for Victory maintained their 6th position but is now tied with Xclusive with identical 80 points and might even go as high as 4th if they play their aces right. Ballantine's loss basically puts them out of contention for the championship because even if Tweeners may fall, they still have Harimanok to watch out for. Only a miraculous event could give them the Championship but the 2nd place is a different story for they have a much better chance at it as only 3 points separates them from the 2nd placed Harimanok Farms. Louie Sindayen was smoking hot and was the most damaging as far as Ballantine's is concerned. He shot the daylights out DIBC with a scorching 656 scratch, 704 handicap series, with scores of 222/241 & 241 netting him Edgar Ramos' High Series of the week Award. Seldom used, Mimi Malik dropped bombs as well with a devastating score of 618. Andy Matic as the anchor, pours in just a 584 but with timely strikes and spares just when exactly needed. Al de Ubago (502) and Abet Alba (464) were totally on cruise control and just let Louie have his way. No one from the Whiskey drinkers scored above 600. Retired actor and now famous bowler Dindo Fernando tried all he could with a series of 582 but the rest of his team mates were simply not in sync.

Tweeners played a friendly game with a not so friendly and dangerous Approach-a-bowls team with identical 4 points apiece. Just when thought everything was smooth sailing after winning the first game, Approach-a-bowls fropped a bomb in the 2nd game completely decimating the defending Champion and "would be champion" by blowing them away with 15 marks game 2 win. Even after winning game 3, they were still not able to dig themselves out of the hole and have to concede to Approach-a-bowls the series. Romie Alcantara, fast becoming the most reliable hitman of Approach-a-bowls leads all scorers with a resounding 623. Daisy Rivera who is vastly improving shells out a 597 and Arnold Asuncion a 586. Posh Spice Kathleen Raymundo this time is the leading scorer for the would be champs while, Doc Ron (587), Andy Ducado (573), scary Spice Jaezen Plata (587) and cranker Jojo Mercado (542) were relegated as mere back-ups. This coming Friday, we shall know if we will have a returning Champion or a 1st time Champion.

Elsewhere:

FC Bowlers schooled Sherlock 6-3 on Reb Esma's 628 and Ronald Valdez's 602 and stays at 9th position. Gem Ganzon pushed as hard as he can with his own 610 but nothing was going right for the others. Sherlock goes down to 10th from 8th place.

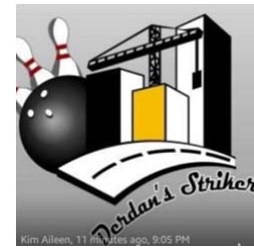

B&G whips DCC Cargo 6-2 on the exemplary plays of Ging Aring (632) and Edwin Diaz (628). B&G is now tied from 5th to 7th place with V for Victory and Xclusive, all with 80 points.

GOODLUCK to all front-runners and aspiring teams! And to all teams at the bottom half, well, let us go out swinging and go kick some ass!
