

Fledgling WILD CARD Denies Ballantine's 7-5, Wins Team of the Week, in the 4th Round of the 2nd Conference, DFBC 53rd All Filipino Bowling League Supported by BeFit-AKI Fitness!!!

Losing the first 2 games did not break this young team, instead when pushed and backed against the wall, they summoned their inner strength to show poise and character in hurdling an obstacle that is the Ballantine's. They did not only win the 3rd game, they took it from the multiple times champion, gaining 2 bonus points bonus along the way while forcibly snatching the series lead. After the smoke of battle has cleared, they were rewarded a score of 7 vs 5 of the opponents, who were shocked that the win was taken from them in such an emphatic fashion, after an easy first 2 games win. In the fateful 3rd game, Jomar Naguit and Josie Forshaw started the game with bad intentions. While Jomar opened with 7 consecutive strikes, Josie in turn made a turkey of her own and no open frames that at the halfway mark, the Wild Team, were no longer looking to just win the game but to take the series and gain bonus as well. The other team members sensing that they have a chance to win it all, took the opportunity and finished the game strongly when Jomar faltered a little bit in the last 3 frames. Josie though continued to wreak havoc and finished with a highlight game of 256 and series score of 641. Jomar Naguit finished the 3rd game with a 243 and series of 641. Larry Dolor contributed steady games of 200/227/230 for a series of 657, muscleman Kelly Odiong forced his way to a 615 series (186/226/203) and Toto Agura, though listless, contributed a 583 and a crucial 3rd game of 202. It was actually a very high scoring game as 8 out of 10 players from both sides, scored 600 plus. Dindo Fernando led his team with a 638 scratch series, Marivic Alfaro finished with a 631, Jun Morales with a 624, and Ricky Reyes with a 551.

AnT Stürmer finally barged into the win column, catching the biggest fish in the ocean, defending and back to back champion Tweeners, scoring a convincing 10 versus nil. This game was a battle between the leading team and the 3rd to the last team that was won by the underdogs. That Tweeners was on a roll and in a 3 game winning streak and that the Stürmers were the exact opposite (3 game losing streak), did not matter in this game for the win hungry Stürmers, who made the most of their 6 marks handicap advantage in pounding the opposition. Power lefty Ramil Tesoro led all scorers with his 661 series on games of 192/235/234, followed by Ronald Valdez who submitted steady games of 230/206/192 for a series of 628. Noel Benavidez who have not scored a 600 series for some time now, had a solid 610 from consistent games of 201/199/210. Aileen De Leon shared a 589 and Kim Co, saddled with a very low handicap had a 537. Only Doc Ronnie Fabian scored a 600 plus (603), while the rest were below 600. The nearest that could, was Kapitana Kathleen Raymundo (593), next is Doc X (577), Jojo Mercado (572) and Jaezen Plata brought up the rear (562). Will this be the start of the journey up the rankings for the AnT Stürmer? Or will the Tweeners be able to rebound from this humbling loss? Only the near future holds the answer. With the win, AnT Stürmer goes up to 17th and with the loss, the Tweeners came tumbling down to 4th after leading in the first 3 rounds.

Sherlock manhandled Derdan's Strikers 11-0 and snatched the lead from under the noses of erstwhile leaders Tweeners and Ball-istics. Unheralded but definitely an up and coming bowler, Gem Ganzon made his presence felt and was at forefront of the devastation, scoring 697 series from games of games of 219/181 and a highlight game of 297 (262 scratch), winning for him all sorts of Awards, such as Bowler of the Week, Series of the Week and the Accumulator (4 Rounds) with a sweet cash prize. He is starting to make waves now that he's given ample game exposures to build his confidence. Not to be outdone, another unsung hero, Fred Realon, submitted score of 671 from games of 208/282 and 181. His highlight game of 282 in the 2nd game would have earned him a Bowler of the Week award, had it not been bested by compatriot Gem in the 3rd. Rounding up, Tina Tabon, softly rolled a 589, Stephen Fideles, contributed 575 series and Rodel Billones was content with his 558 series. Ariel Serrano (616), Arnel Bermas (591) and Cherry Burayag (572) fought hard but all for naught, as Team Manager Danny Aquino (492) and Ramon Dayap and Joel Umalsa combining for a measly 500 series struggled all day long. Team Manager Edgar Ramos who is on a Philippine vacation will be ecstatic to hear of this news and will hope to hold the lead till the finish line.

Pocket Snipers got the breaks that they were looking for when they trashed Xclusive 9-2. Lucy Ingente, played her best games of the conference pulling out super duper games of 212/232 and 226 for a mind boggling series score of 670, leading her team in exacting a win over the previously 3rd placed Xclusives. The Snipers initially lost the 1st game, but came back strong in the 2nd and 3rd earning bonus points along the way and taking the series points as well. Likewise, Doods Salazar, 651 series (204/234/213), might have been the best scorer/player of the team, if not for Lucy's exemplary performance. Aiza Garcia, also played very well dishing out 632 from games of 199/231 and 202 while Billy Hernandez (575) and Leo Lerma (559) took it easy. Philip Cabutihan's 684 from games of 245/170 and 269 won for him the WTA from DFBC and from Billy but still lost games 2 and 3 and the series. Marivic Jorge's 646 is also worth to mention, together with Sonny Cosio's 569, Vice Edgar Vale's 564 and Walter Aldeguer's 546, but on the face of the Sniper's onslaught it was all in vain.

V for Victory exacted the full points 8-0 versus new team Ex-Bowlers. Papakuy Aldu De Ubago, fresh from a long vacation from the Philippines, played as if he never left, and showed no signs of rust, scoring a team leading 653 series from games of 219/200/234. His compatriots, though not scoring as good as he did, provided him all the support that he needed, starting from the Patriarch Butch Vargas' 596 series, Joanne Vargas' 578 series, Andy Matic's 550 series and Louie Sindayen's 536 series. V for Victory is pretty much under the radar these days, they maybe undermanned but they can pull the rugs from under any team in this league. They entered the Magic 10 at 9th with this win. Abet Soriano, led his team with a 611 series followed by Alma Leal's 594, but the rest of the team had a miserable 532 average series per player.

IIEE fried Team Pilipinas 7-3 and improved from 7th to 5th position. The engineers wasted no time, immediately taking games 1 and 2 before cooling off to concede game 3 but not after gaining 1 bonus point and the series points by 1 pin courtesy of Arnel Arias heroics. It was Joven Hinampas' (nang mahina lang naman) time to shine the brightest when he burned the lanes for a 661 series from consistent games of 227/215 and 219. Their anchorman Arnel Arias was also an immovable force when he submitted a series of 627. Loreto Gonzaga shared a quiet but effective game series of 600, while Christine Ocampo (581) and Ganpors (572), though both below 600 were also as potent. Team Pilipinas' Janice Castillo's monster series of 667 (213/233 and 221) though negated by Joven's games helped TP won the last game and averted a catastrophic egg distribution by the Engineers. Ray Castillo the hubby, supported with a 652 series share of the score. Mark Bumagat, shelled out 587 and Dennis "John Lloyd" Araza deposited 591 to the cause. Olan Baldivino and Caloy Serrano jointly scored 543 to complete the scores.

Ball-istics, moving stealthily under the radar, got their 4th consecutive wins in as many encounters, a 6-2 win over the reeling B&G squad. Ball-istics (previously TBS and OPTIO) does not seem like feeling the effect of their veteran players' exodus and continue being a contending team as long as Bowling Princess Uella Marcial remains as their Alpha (Fe)Male. However this time, a come-backing player who had to take a rest to recuperate due to a work related injury/accident, came back with a bang. Jonner Miranda towed the team with his 654 series (255/213/186) and played like he never left. New recruits Lexter Roman (603) and Alek Makulada + Marvin Rebusada (613), and Abby Rabago (572) continue to effectively thwart all challengers, and this time B&G was the latest. Only Grace Abalos scored above 600 (603). Rey Liboon (597), London bound Ging Aring (584), Herbert Capili (570) were also in the fight, but Babes Lopez was a little off with her 548. Don't look now but Ball-istics is right behind the league leader, Sherlock at no. 2.

Elsewhere:

Unity Bowlers, the newest kids on the block, registered their ever win in their young bowling career in this league, a hard-earned 6-2 win over DCC Cargo. Eddie Tan (597) and Lita Ortiz (584) led the new team.

Harimanok Farms scored 9 points against their averages and goes back up to 3rd. Fielding only a legal line-up of 3 players to beat their averages, Liza Castro played 651 series to easily win against the team's average.

Bowltech one-upped Covenant 5-4 from the huge, huge games of rising star Jo Nava, a 750 series from games of 282/251 and 217 winning her the Bowler of the Week and Series of the Week Awards. CONGRATULATIONS! Jun Baloloy (652) and Mau Dujali (640) held their ground to hold the fort for the veteran Covenant Team.
