

DBC's Pride Bamboozles Approach-a-bowls 12-1, Leap-Frogs 6 Notches Up to 11th, in the First Friday of Ramadan, Week 13, 1st Conference of DFBC 53rd All Filipino Bowling League Supported by BeFit-AKI Fitness!!!

A very high scoring game ensues on Lanes 1 & 2, breaking some record of sorts, at least in this conference where a team scores 12 points, goes 6 levels up in the standings, scores above 1,000 per game, and all its players score above 600. In their most explosive game ever in their first conference upon joining the league, the DBC's Pride quintet, serves notice that they can take any team in the league, if they are focused and once the lane condition is to their liking. Noel Bejar, the leader of the group and the top average scorer, leads all scorers but receives more than enough support from his team mates in showing the Approach-a-bowls who is the boss. Noel scores a series of 687 with a highlight game at the first canto, 253. A rookie lady (?) bowler, Joan Nava, who is starting to make a name for herself, follows suit with her 649 series from solid games of 214/207/228. The lefty Mario Rivera, found the lane condition to be friendly to him, imposes his will and contributes 623. Joel Comendador, who holds the highest handicap game record, shares 621 and Joseph Quintillan, gives out a modest but effective 611. Approach-a-bowls never knew what hit them, losing game 1 by 7 marks, and game 2 by 16 marks and gives their best effort to take game 3 but still fall short by 2 marks. They did not play so bad themselves as 3 players score more than 600 series. Their 1-2 punch, Daisy Rivera, 617, Joanne Dela Cruz, 621, fight till the end, and while Romie Alcantara, 601 keeps on pushing, to no avail, Abet Soriano and Arnold Asuncion, is not in their elements, scoring 561 and 547 respectively. DBC's Pride is at no. 11, just 2 points shy of entering the Magic 10 while Approach-a-bowls went down 5 levels to no. 16.

Xclusive, playing a gem of a game, blasts Derdan's Strikers 12-0 into outer space and inserts itself to position no. 3 in the standings. Except for a freakish loss in round 12, Xclusive racked up successive wins from Round 8 and is now a threat to the 2 league leaders with still 4 rounds remaining. If they continue playing as they do in the remaining rounds, chances are, we will see a new league leader. 4 Xclusive players score more than 600 series. The up and coming and youthful John Glen Leyesa, who is now becoming a dependable player for the Xclusive quintet, shot the daylights out of DIBC with his 688 series on big games of 231/208/249. Supporting him and adding to the misery of the expansion team, is Daddy Albert Leyesa with his own series of 645, recovering pretty well in his game 1 miscue with a highlight game of 265 in game 2, thus winning for him the Bowler of the Week award. Marivic Jorge, who continues to improve her games week-in and week-out, pummels the opposition with her 642 from games of 224/222/196. Philip "The Kind-Hearted" Cabutihan, as the anchor, is not so kind with his 618, while Boni Manalang is just content in maintaining his average with a 571 series. Aileen De Leon puts up a lot of fight with her 614 and you may say that Joel Umalsa also tries his best to support with his 591, but the rest of the crews Kim Co (554), Rejhs Zamora (545) and lefty Ramil Tesoro (469) should do better in the next outing. With this loss, Derdan's went 5 notches down to no. 17.

A clash of titans, between the league leading Harimanok and Tweeners happened in lanes 17 & 18, wherein the defending champion Tweeners comes out victorious, 7-3 and now holds a 4 point lead over Harimanok Farms for the pole position. This is the 2nd time that these 2 teams changed positions, snatched by the other and who knows what will happen next. Game 1 has gone the Farmers way as Liza scores 231 and Rex scores 221 while only Jojo scores 200 above (234) in the other side. However, in the 2nd game, the Farmers scores 18 marks less than they did in game 1 and the Tweeners just 1 mark less than they did in game 1 resulting in a lopsided win and 12 marks advantage by Tweeners in game 2. Game 3 was for all the marbles and the Tweeners stepped up to win by 5 marks and to seal the series points plus a bonus. Jojo Mercado from far away Abu Dhabi, top scores for everybody, with a series of 663 and with a highlight game of 258 in game 3. The be-moustached Doc Ronnie Fabian who has been secretly practicing with Hashim Guinomla, seems to find his old touch and play solid games of 202/207/242 for a series of 651. As usual the ever reliable Doc Xanthie, was in, with his usual contribution of 602. Another AUH import, Andy Ducado, is not so far behind with his 595. Only Kapitana, Posh Spice, Katleen Raymundo was off the mark, but a contribution nonetheless, a 545 series. Rex Galang from harimanok top bills for his team with 622, followed by Liza Castro's 608, El Presidente July Perez's 587, Hilda Pilipina's 584 and Andy Erena's 534.

Team Pilipinas smacks B&G 7-1. Team Pilipinas continuing winning 2 straight Fridays and playing the spoilers role, upsetting their much heralded opponents like it is their past time. This time their victim is another team in the magic 10, B&G who are so beautifully placed as no. 6, when TP run rough shod of them and the result is catastrophic as far as B&G is concerned. Janice Castillo, plays marvellous bowling, showing and leading her all male team mates and willing them to win. She tallies a mind-boggling 698, just 2 pins shy of 700 series. Mark Bumagat, the next highest scorer, is not so bad himself, scoring 596, 10 marks shy of Janice's score. Captain Dennis "John Lloyd" Araza's game, a 582, is well within his average, the Cowboy Preacher, Caloy Serrano's share is also acceptable at 582, but Rey Castillo, takes it easy with his 557. B&G if not for the tie score on the 3rd game would have laid a big fat egg, but instead takes a 1 point. Grace Abalos and Dong Corpuz, lead the way, both scoring 600 plus, 608 and 610 respectively. But the rest are just a combined 1,604 pinfalls for an average of 535 each 3 players. With this result, TP is now just 3 points shy of barging into the Magic 10 and B&G tumbles down to no. 8 from 6th position.

RAK Pocket Snipers stops Optio (TBS), 6-2 and improves their standing from 10th to 9th and at the same time pulls down the Optioners to 5th from 4th position. Doods Salazar's 239 in the first game and Aiza Garcia's 206, proves to be the difference in winning game 1 and possibly the series. The Ras Al Khaimah based keglers established a 5 marks difference in their game 1 win and proceeded to win game 2 before losing in game 3, but holds on to the series lead. It was Doods time to shine, now that he has gotten used to the lane condition, to a new ball and a new found confidence in his game. He leads all scorers with his 637, but was ably supported by beauty queen Aiza Garcia's 595 and soft bowler Lucy Ingente's 597, who has also improved a lot in terms of her sparing. Lefty Leo Lerma (Triple L?) is also there with his 594, but London (WOFBT) bound Billy Hernandez is nowhere near his game with his measly 518 series. Good for him that the 4 other's stepped up. Veteran Mommy Elsie Marcial takes over the team's leadership in the absence of the Bowling Princess Uella, top billing, with her 616 series. She was well supported by Ryan Layoso's 597 and Whien Datinguino's 596, but Abby Rabago's 560 and combines scores of Marvin Rebusada and Atty JoeRod (545), left much to be desired.

Elsewhere:

Wild Wild X surprises Sherlock 5-4 on the strength of their game 1, winning it by 162 pinfalls on the combination of a poor game from Sherlock and inspired play of the rookie team Wild Wild X, particularly Obet Lucero who tormented the dog lovers with his 246 in the first game.

Ballantines recovers from the first 2 game losses against IIEE, and gets back in game 3 with a vengeance, winning for them a bonus and the series for a 5-4 win.

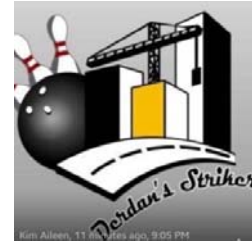

DCC Cargo plays friendly bowling with Covenant 4-4. Same goes to the game between FC Bowlers and V for Victory who shared the scores equally at 4-4.

Congratulations to the April BOM Winners: Arnel Arias (Class O), Xanthie Fronda (Class A), Abet Alba (Class B), Alvin Alfaro (Class C), Marivic Alfaro (Female Open) and Lucy Ingente (Class C-Female). Mahuhusay kayo!
