

OPTIO (TBS), Opens DFBC 53rd Season, 1st Conference with 10-0 Manhandling of Expansion Team DBC's Pride.

The DFBC 1st Conference, 53rd Season started without much fanfare, but with lots of fireworks at the lanes, with one team scoring 10 points and 6 others scoring 8 points apiece. After the brief introduction by the newly elected President July Perez, of the new set of elected officers for 2018, he declared the games OPEN. There are 18 teams competing from the previous Conference's 19 teams as a result of the departure of Friendly Bowlers Team and Team Barangay and the entry of DBC's pride spearheaded by newly promoted Class O, Noel Bejar and composed of several newcomers and some veterans.

Currently sitting atop the rest of the field and taking off like a house on fire from the starting gate is Team OPTIO (TBS), formerly The Bowlers of Symmetry who walloped the new kids on the block, DBC's Pride with a scorching 10-0 score, top billed by the "Bowling Princess" Uella Marcial's team-high series of 650. Uella's big first game of 236 supported by Atty. JoeRod's 216 plus Ryan Layoso's 201 set the tone for the Optioners and consequently proved too much to handle by the expansion team, DBC's Pride. Team OPTIO took full advantage of the starting handicaps of the 4 rookie bowlers on the way to one of their best starts of the Conference. Ably supporting Uella was Ryan Layoso's 619, Olan Baldivino's 597, Atty. JoeRod's 591 and Abby Rabago's 581. Top scoring for the neophytes was Noel who tossed in 576 followed by Benjie Espiritu with a 555 sardine-like score, Mar "Yow" Rivera submitting 526, Joel grounding out 513 and Jo Nava shelling out 501.

The returning Team Harimanok Farms of Pres. July would like to improve on their 7th Place finish from last conference for a possible championship title this year and served its notice by beefing their line-up with the addition of the "Werpa" couple Mel and Myra Aviles to their already formidable line-up. A resounding 8-0 shellacking of the B&G quintet has the team aligning their intent with their execution. 3 of the 5 bowlers fielded by Pres. July tallied 600 plus. It was, however, the un-assuming Audrey's Daddy Alvin Alfaro's turn to show the way as he led all scorers with his 645. Not so far behind was Andy Erena revving 630, one half of the "Werpa" couple, Myra Aviles pinching in 605, Liza Castro punching in 597 and closing out was the very silent 549 of Pres. July. Grace Abalos' 602 proved no match to the determined plays of the Farmers as her other team mates fell short, with Dong Corpuz throwing in 597, Babes Lopez gunning 565, Team Captain Herbert Capili pumping 555 and Edwin Diaz showing only a 550. Who knows, this might be the year of the FARMERS.

Beware to all and sundry, as the sophomore team of Derdan's Strikers are now all loaded and stacked up and ready to chase the coveted Champion's trophy, with the acquisition of power lefty bowler Ramil Tesoro from the free agency and the much improved games of Aileen De Leon, Kim Co, Kelly Odiong and Team Manager Danny Aquino, plus the veteran leadership of Jey Laurel and support of Ramon Dayap, Joel Umalsa, Diane Quiambao and Rejhs Zamora. Wild Wild X was the first on the list as Derdan's administered an 8-2 trashing of the likewise sophomore team of Captain Sonny Cosio. MM artist and muscle man, Kelly Odiong was the man of the hour as he relentlessly pounded their helpless opponent scoring 252 on the very first game and eventually finishing a conference high of 697 series. Vastly improving Aileen De Leon scattered 621, Ramil Tesoro, wracked-up 617, the same score was tallied by Kim Co and Mgr. Danny Aquino was allowed to gallivant with 559. El Capitan, Sonny Cosio tried with his 638 and so did Rodel Calderon, with his 586 but they did not get enough support as the transferee Gary Faustino was cold with his 550, Mariza Santiago dished out 565 and big guy Ron Dionisio softly delivered 559.

RAK Pocket Snipers strangled the defending champions Tweeners 8-2, earning bragging rights that Doc Ron's and Doc X's team are their "suki", consecutively beating them every time they meet in the last 3 conferences, Champion or no. It was "WTA-High Game" King, Billy Hernandez's and Teacher Aiza Garcia's turn to show case their bowling prowess. Billy straight bowled 634 and Aiza was equally sharp with her 632 series. Not to be left behind was the combined score of Lola Dubs Fuly Sales Primo and Lucy Ingente who threw in a 617 and again the combined score of Dennis Gonzaga cum Lucy 595 and finally Team Captain Richie's 598. Tess Victoria resisted to no avail with her 640, likewise Robi Gamboa who forwarded 599, but the rest of the defending champs were caught resting on their laurels as Doc Ron sleepily surrendered a 528, Black Beauty Jaezen Plata hiccupped only 560 while Doc X fell short with his 576.

The electrical engineers of iiee mercilessly spanked the DCC Cargo Team 8-0 led by the constantly improving Arnel Arias who gallantly willed his team to win by hitting 651, evenly distributed in every game, followed by Amboy who electrified the opponent with his 617 while Joven Hinampas (pero di masakit) quietly produced 574, "Lawin" Liza Lugtu flew just high enough with her 572 and Tito Gonzaga whistled with his 554. No one from DCC scored more than 600 though, tried as she did, Merle Cada's 599 was not enough to quell the engineers onslaught. Filo Escabel's 580, Manager Danny Casio's 564, Lukas Sta. Barbara's 583 and the combined 505 series scores of Elvin Sumague and Bing Castañeda were all nowhere near the target.

Xclusive averted what could have been a catastrophic defeat and instead eked out an 8-2 win over the determined FC Bowlers. Timely substitution was the key when after succumbing in the first game, Team Xclusive summoned transferee Marivic Jorge in the second game and boy oh boy, did it do wonders. The departure of two of their top guns, the "Werpa" couple, somehow depleted their line-up but made up for it by acquiring Mavic from free agency. Not only did they win the next 2 games, they also took 2 bonus points and the series. All 4 players fielded by Captain Albert Leyesa scored above 600, starting with Vice President Edgar Vale who shot the daylights out of the DIBC by scoring 263 scratch and 292 with handicap in the third game giving him the top scratch and top handicap scores from the first round. Vice Edgar's 641 series was also the team high and he was not alone with Mother Lily Leyesa rolled a 641, the son, John Glen Leyesa cross-alleyed 622, the silent operator, Walter Aldeguer contributing 609 and of course Marivic Jorge's and Boni Manalang's combined score of 524 closed out the scoring. Tough loss for the FC Bowler's quintet as Ronald Valdez played exceptionally well with his 257 scratch in the 3rd game matching Vice Edgar's strikes after strikes, but his 689 fell short, against the superior game of Xclusive, and a short fall of scores from team mates as only Chris Calgao scored a decent 597.

Approach-a-bowls disposed V for Victory 8-0. A 4 marks handicap advantage looked like Mount Everest for the several times champion V for Victory and this time it was all Approach-a bowl from the get go. They only needed the handicap for the psychological advantage it gave them. Their scratch scores was more than enough to subdue Butch Vargas' and his cohorts. It was a low scoring game from both sides as only the new comer Josie Forshaw scored a decent 595 followed by another newbie Archie Agustin with his 565, and again another transferee Arnold Asuncion scored 541 and the rest, the gentle giant Ato Lubao and Joel P. decided to preserve their handicaps for the coming games ahead. Only Albert Alba gave a semblance of a fight as he struggled with his 577, while the others were simply outgunned and probably thought best to fight again another day.

Team Sherlock of Manager Edgar Ramos out duelled Covenant 6-2, from the timely hits of Fred Realon (640), Stephen Fideles' opening salvo as the gunner (596), new acquisition, Rica Asuncion's clean game and sparrings (592), the hustle play of Larry Dolor (585), and Edgar Ramos soft touch plays (548). Marlon Martinez led the charge of Maria Gil's squad with his 622 and the combined scores of Jojo Acebron and Marissa Manalo's 610 did not make much of an impact as the rest of the pack, was not able to gain a much needed break.

Several times champion, Ballantine's scored 6-2 versus Team Pilipinas. Team Captain Mario Magdaluyo and wards shut-down Dennis Araza's team with Joylyn Sta. Barbara scoring a team high 597 series, Mario Magdaluyo and Marivic Alfaro submitted the same score of 550, while GCC mainstay Ricky Reyes fooled around with his 548 and Robin Edralin (533) probably thought it best that handicap is better in winning games going forward. Only Pastor Caloy Serrano (moonlighting as Cowboy), scored a respectable 592 and the rest of the gang, including precious conference's MVP Mark Bumagat decided to relax and fight another day.
