

Ballantine's Schooled Derdan's Strikers 9-0, Wins Team of the Week, in the 8th Round of the 2nd Conference, DFBC 53rd All Filipino Bowling League Supported by BeFit-AKI Fitness!!!

A resounding 9-0 winning score and back to school (bowling school) lesson was conducted by the Whiskey drinkers of Team Captain Mario Magdaluyo to the sophomore quintet of Danny Aquino who didn't know what hit them and hoped that those lessons will be put to good use in the succeeding rounds. Captain Mario found his mojos back to lead his team with an emphatic 679 series (250/192/237) highlighted by his 250 in the first game to jump-start his team. This is his finest performance in this conference and be assured, won't be the last. Mainstay Jun Morales happily obliged to tutor the opponents when he delivered a 629 from games of 191/259 and 179. If he could only be consistent this could spell danger for the opponents in the next rounds to come. Gene Ornejas An ADFBC regular who decided to help Ballantine's cause this conference is a gem of an addition to the already formidable line-up of Ballantines. Gene has a zero handicap but generated a series of 619 and should likely play a vital role in their push to the Championship in the later rounds. Marivic Alfaro, fresh from gathering medals and trophies in the London WOFBT, will not be left behind and scored her own 602 series. Only Joylyn Sta. Barbara scored below 600 but her 557 was enough for them to score a total series of 3,086 for the Team of the Week Award. From Derdan's side only Malou Fideles' scored a decent 595 and the rest were content to watch in awe of their multi-titled opponent. Ballantine's jumped 4 places up from 12th to 8th.

Pocket Sniper white washed a listless B&G quintet 9-0 and is now threatening the leaders at 3rd courtesy of their 6 game winning streak beginning from Round 3. This is the longest winning streak of the Snipers and will be their gift to their Team Captain Billy Hernandez returning from a long vacation in the Philippines. 3 Snipers scored 600 series led by seldom used Eugene (surname?) who delivered 643 series to the cheers of his team mates. Doods Salazar shared 604 sowing that he has clearly adjusted to the lanes of DIBC and has probably avoided the late Thursday nights spree. Aiza Garcia also joined the fray and procured 602 series with a highlight game of 243 in the game. Richie Villarosa put up a decent 561 series and Dennis Gonzaga added a 2 game series of 398 when he substituted Leo Lerma. Rey Liboon from the other side, fought and scatche back (638) to no avail as he didn't get the support he needed. Only Edwin (557) tried to help him but it wasn't nearly enough as the rest struggled big time. Can the Snipers sustain their run? We shall see.

Also on a 3 game winning streak and one of the hottest team right now is AnT Sturmer who barged inside the Magic 10 (9th) in round 7 and has now gone up to 7th from as low as 17th in Round 2. AnT Sturmer shut out Xclusive 9-0 from their amazing team efforts, as 4 players scored in the 600 plus series, led by power lefty Ramil Tesoro's 664 (658 scratch), who only shared the left side with another lefty Philip Cabutihan. Ramil who is now comfortable with his new team continues to terrorize the opposing teams. Seldom played Cris Toledo but makes it sure that it always counts puts up a 604 with a game 2 highlight of 229. Reb Esma riding from his 41 point handicap put it to good use and shelled out 602 series. Ronald Valdez scored an exact 600 series and Noel Benavidez was not so far with his 591 series. Walang nagawa ang 661 series ni Boni Manalang at 613 series ni Philip Cabutihan sa magkakatulong na pag atake ng kalaban. Kulang ang mga naging kontribusyon ng kanilang mga kasama at hindi nila malaman ang kanilang gagawin. Xclusive is now down at their lowest, at 16th.

Ballistics snatched the pole position with a hard earned 7-4 drubbing of stubborn Bowltech. Prized catch Lexter Roman, who throws and hooks the ball like a pro, scored a scintillating 716 (656 scratch) series to go along with it, winning Series of the Week Award. He is now slowly getting to form and with the on form Bowling Princess Uella Marcial (fresh from picking up most of the medals and prizes from the London WOFBT in all the events-CONGRATS idol!) consistently delivering the goodies, this could spell doom to the chasers. The problem for the all chasers and pretenders is that Alek Maculada, who was previously, "just a handicapper", is also now a force to be reckoned with. He delivered a 653 series and is consistently doing this for his team. Uella as the anchor of the team, delivered a 644 (Winner of the Series of the Week Award) on consistent games of 213/206/225, but most importantly played with ice water in her veins when the opposition was threatening. The diminutive Vhien Datuinginoo, played easy but nevertheless scored an important 573 series. Mommy Elsie Marcial scored a deceiving 478 with her very low handicap of 8 pfs, but her scratch scores were not so bad, 164/136/154. How could a team with 4 players scoring 600 plus lost? Answer, only because the opposing team played much, much better. Make no mistake, the Bowltech quintet, played superb bowling themselves, Filo Escabel (650), Raul Cariaga (634), Noel Bejar (623), Rax Araneta (614), with a game 2 highlight of 238 winning for her Bowler of the Week Award, fought valiantly in a losing effort.

Wild Card continues to find ways to win absorbing the game 1 loss to V for Victory like a potent pill to wake them up in game 2, winning 6-3 in the process. When their 1-2 punch, Larry Dolor and Kelly Odiong both faltered in game 1, it was Toto Agura's turn to make the team afloat, and when both woke-up and Chris Calgao continued his excellent games, the opposing team suddenly can't hit their marks. Toto Agura led the team, scoring 629, with a highlight game of 253 in the first game winning game 1 WTA. Ever dependable anchor, muscleman and former MMA fighter Kelly Odiong was not so far behind with his 624 series. Chris Calgao, who is now oozing with confidence with his throw, secured a 610 on consistent games of 201/206/203. Josie Forshow with her unorthodox but accurate and effective bowling throw, puts up a decent 570. Only Team Captain Larry Dolor struggled, what with all the pin no. 10's not falling down from a perfect pocket hit, to his dismay and frustration. He submitted a measly 558 series but vowed to do better in the next outing, inshallah. Only Al De Ubago (610) and Butch Vargas (610) scored more than 600. The rest of the gang did not help much.

Team Pilipinas caught a big fish in winning over and pulling down erstwhile leader Sherlock, 6-2. Team Pilipinas, on a 4 week winning streak is entrenched at 5th, only a good 11 points away from no. 1, and 8 points from their latest victim Sherlock. Team Pilipinas who are mostly composed of Class C bowlers is the epitome of a team making full use of their handicaps and proving to all and sundry that by playing a little over or within one's averages, the handicaps will even out the playing field, even when playing against more seasoned and skilled bowlers from opposing teams. New recruit Romy Alcantara played a monster game in game 1, scoring 272, and winning for him the Bowler of the week award and en route to a series of 654 leading all scorers, team mates and foes alike. He was ably supported by Rey Castillos' 637 series on steady games of 196/229/212. Team Captain Dennis Araza, was right behind with his 575. Janice Castillo, was a little bit off with her 549 while Mark Bumagat was really off with a 527 series. Rica Asuncion, fresh from travelling across America and Europe, led Sherlock with 624, followed by new recruit Rex Galang's 612, Ryan Layoso's 586, Rodel Billones' 555 sardines, and bringing the rear is Stephen Fideles's 546. If TP will continue their winning ways, they could find themselves looking down from the top.

Elsewhere:

IIEE subdues Harimanok Farm from sheer team effort as 6 Engineers scored 600 plus led by Arnel Arias (662), followed by Amboy Salavaria (613), Ramil Aquino (609), Joven Hinampas (603) and Liza "Lawin" Lugtu (552) who has to cancel her appointment just to support her team. Abet Alba, Alvin Alfaro and Myra Aviles were all on the 580 plus series, while Andy Erena and Liza Castro were in the 570 plus series.

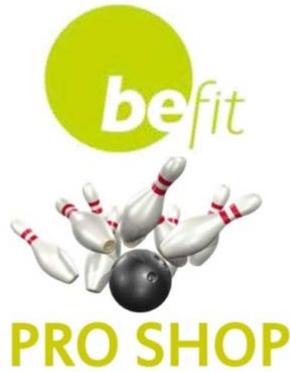

Unity Bowlers scored 8-0 against their averages. Ex-Bowlers continued the misery of Tweener scoring 5-4 against them.
